

Statute of the UNESCO Chair in Translation Studies (UC)

1. UC is being established at the Comenius University as a working place of the University.
2. The project of UC is implemented at the Faculty of Philosophy, where its registered office is located and the Faculty of Education, while the faculties undertake to collaborate with each other as well as with partner institutions in the Slovak Republic and abroad in an efficient way and within intentions of the goals of the project.
3. Top executives of the University are to assess activities of UC.
4. The deans of the faculties and the chair-holder undertake to inform the rector of the Comenius University in detail on activities of UC (including the usage of funds) at the end of each calendar halfyear and whenever required to do so; the faculties and the chair-holder also report to the rector on efficient implementation of the goals of the project as well as on spending the funds for the project.
5. Possible extension of UC, especially in terms of staffing, is decided by the rector of the Comenius University upon a proposal of implementators of the project.
6. If the rector finds out any serious discrepancies between the goals of the project and its implementation, he can ask the faculty for a remedy, including staffing changes within internal structure of UC as well as, in consent with the rules for implementing the project, recommend the way of remedy taken, including changes in staffing, to the founder of the project.
7. Managing positions at the UC are offered through a call for tender.
