Subject: Decision of the Scientific Council of the Faculty of Natural Sciences of Comenius University

Dear Dr. Cudny,

Allow me to inform you, that in connection with your habilitation procedure, the Scientific Council of the Faculty of Natural Sciences at its meeting held on June 24th, 2016 discussed the proposal for your appointment as an associate professor in the field of "human geography".

In order to give consent to the proposal for the appointment as an associate professor pursuant to Article 4. 11 point a) of the Rules of Procedure of the Scientific Council of the Faculty of Natural Sciences of Comenius University, a consensual agreement by an absolute majority of all the members of the Scientific Council is required. The number of members of the Scientific Council of the Faculty of Natural Sciences of Comenius University is 32. The Scientific Council is able to constitute a quorum if there is a two-third's majority of its members present at its meeting, therefore represented by at least 22 members. 26 members were present at a meeting of the Scientific Board on June 24th, 2016.

When voting on the proposal for your appointment as associate professor in human geography, the Scientific Council of the Faculty of Natural Sciences of Comenius University voted as follows: 5 affirmative votes, 10 negative votes and 11 invalid votes. The proposal did not receive 17 votes in favour, i.e. the required consent of an absolute majority of the members of the Scientific Council of the Faculty of Comenius University, and therefore you cannot be granted the title "associate professor".
